ANARCHIST NETWORK NEWSLETTER

P.O. BOX 150 EAST BRUNSWICK 3057

MARCH/APRIL 1992.

Yeah Gidday,

I'm doing this thing for the next two issues.If you want to help let me know via the mailbox, in plenty of time please! If you don't want to help I'd really appreciate some postage stamps/money. What would also be really exiting would be to get some actual news to put in the NEWSLETTER. Stuff like who's doing what, where, and when. To make it easier, and possibly more meaningful I'v created a deadline. This is April 30. This means that if you have anything happening from the middle of May onwards you can let us all know about it. Who knows we might even wish to come along!!

Could someone who can draw please design a new letterhead thingy, I've been looking at this for over two years and its getting really boring.

Tanya.

WAYS OF SETTLING PERSONAL AND POLITICAL DIFFERENCES.. No37

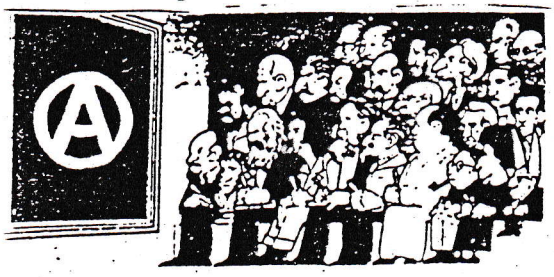
ANARCHISTS IN FULL DRESS UNIFORM, BOW POLITELY BEFORE BEATING SHIT OUT OF EACH OTHER WITH CEREMONIAL STICKS. THIS GAME IS CALLED: "FU-CKYOUBOURGEOISRE-FORMISTLIBERALBASTARDH-OWDAREYOURVERSIONOFA-NARCHYNOTBETHESAMEAS-MINE!"

Dear ANN,

well I'll confess. I liked the December December ANN, full of jokes and cartoons. I thought it was the best ANN I've ever seen. I showed it to non A folk and they liked it-its the first ANN I've ever shown anyone. Sure a couple of jokes were a bit dodgy, but it led to interesting discussion about the humourless left that takes itself so very very seriously...

But I was wrong. I can see it now. After reading Viv and Spiders letter in the last issue of ANN I realize my terrible mistake. Laughter is not anarchist! How can a real anarchist ever work with anyone who has a sense of humour? I apologise-give me a boring dry academic have anayday-I won't laugh again.

So I expect all those who laughed at the jokes to join me at the Re-education camp. Come-on you know who you are! We will have serious political discussions about differences in method and philosophy until our brains turn into porridge and run out our ears. Long position papers will be written and it will be very adult event.(Of course it won't actually achieve anything but we will all feel good and holy doing it so that doesn't matter.) So lets get rid of the idea that jokes and humour are valid way of confronting issues. They are not! Do you hear me!



And the person who changed the title drawing on the Dec ANN did so without Official Approval. Don't let it happen again. ANN has a happy joyous scene of harmony on its cover-and it stays that way!

And finally Robin Hood!! How dare you pick a psuedo-name without having it approved by the Idealogically sound Anarchist Psuedo-Name Approval Comittee!!! Creeps. Don't you know anything? I'll see you at Re-education camp.

Yours in correct alignment
WAL.

Anarchist Age Monthly Review.

Anarchist Age Monthly Review

In 1986 the Libertarian Workers for a Self-Managed Society set up the Anarchist Media Institute to act as an interface between the Libertarian Workers, the mass media and the International Anarchist Community.

The "Anarchist Age" incorporates much of this information but because of the high production and distribution costs, it appears annually at best. This means there is a long time lag between the time we receive much information and the time our Australian readers receive this information. To overcome this problem we introduced a new service, "THE ANARCHIST AGE MONTHLY REVIEW".

Now in its tenth month of publication it has proved very popular consisting of up to 30 pages of:

- Libertarian Workers activities.
- Press Releases.
- Copies of international and interstate literature we have received in the previous month.
- Discussion papers of local and international content.

Copies by subscription only. Subscription covers costs of photocopying and postage.

Subscription Rates:
